

The UKMT currently runs two summer school weeks in Birmingham in July, each for around forty 14-16 year olds. Attendance is by invitation only. We are looking for potential, and select students for one week based primarily on Hamilton and Maclaurin Intermediate Olympiad scores and the other week based primarily on IMC scores. However, many factors are taken into consideration beyond the pure numerical score.