- 5.3 In addition, Membership for a period of 3 years is open to any individual or organisation interested in promoting the Objects who/which:
 - 5.3.1 applies to the Charity in the form required by the Trustees;
 - 5.3.2 meets the criteria set out below:
 - 5.3.2.1 has been a volunteer for the Charity for at least 12 months though in special circumstances, trustees can choose a shorter time period if members are actively engaged in UKMT voluntary activities;

 - 5.3.2.3 is considered suitable by the Trustees;
 - 5.3.3 is approved by the Trustees; and

- 5.6 Membership is automatically terminated if the Member concerned:
 - 5.6.1 ceases to be a Trustee (although any such Trustee and Member may be invited to remain as a Member at the discretion of the other Trustees);
 - 5.6.2 gives written notice of resignation to the Charity;

The Trustees may only pass such a resolution after notifying the Member in writing, giving their reasons, and considering the matter in the light of any written representations which the Member concerned puts forward within 14 clear days after receiving notice.
- 5.7 Trustee decisions relating to membership, specifically acceptance, rejection and removal, can be challenged and even reversed by members calling a general meeting.
- 5.8 Membership is not transferable.

6. GENERAL MEETINGS

Calling a general meeting

- 6.1 A general meeting may be called at any time by the Trustees and must be called within 21 days of a written request from at least 10 members or 5% of the Members, whichever is the larger number (unless there are fewer than 10 members in which case whichever is the smaller number), in accordance with the Companies Acts to be held on a date not more than 28 days after the date of the notice.
- 6.2 General meetings are called on at least 14 clear days' written notice specifying the business to be discussed, and must include a statement provided by the members calling for the meeting, or shorter notice if it is so agreed by a majority in number of the Members having a right to attend and vote at that meeting who hold at least 95% of the total voting rights at that meeting of all the Members.
- 6.3 The notice of a general meeting shall specify the place, the date and the time of the general meeting, state the general nature of the business to be dealt with at the meeting and state with reasonable prominence that a Member is entitled to appoint another person as their proxy to exercise all or any of their rights to attend and to speak and vote instead of them. If the meeting is to be an AGM, the notice must say so.
- 6.4 Where it is intended to pass a Special Resolution at a general meeting, the notice must include the text of the resolution and state that it is intended to propose the resolution as a Special Resolution.
- 6.5 Notice must be sent to:
 - 6.5.1 the Charity's auditors (if any);
 - 6.5.2 the Members (including the Trustees).
- 6.6 The accidental omission to give notice of any general meeting, or to send a form of proxy with a notice where required, or the non-receipt of a notice or form of proxy, shall not invalidate the proceedings at any general meeting.

Attending a general meeting

- 6.7 Members are entitled to attend general meetings either personally, by an authorised representative (in the case of a Member organisation), by proxy or by suitable means agreed by the Trustees in which all participants may communicate with all the other participants. Proxy forms must be delivered to the Secretary (or if none, to the registered office address) at least 24 hours before the meeting. For the purposes of this article 6 only, attendance by an authorised representative, by proxy or by suitable means agreed by the Trustees in which all participants may communicate with all the other participants constitutes attendance in person.

Quorum

- 6.8 There must be a quorum present before a general meeting starts to do business. There is a quorum at a general meeting if the number of Members present in person plus proxies is:

Quorum = 3 members if membership base is 15 or less

Quorum = 20% of membership base if membership base is between 16 and 100

Quorum = 20 members if membership base is between 100 and 400

Quorum = 5% of membership base if membership base is 400 or greater.

Proceedings at general meetings

- 6.9 The Chair or (if the Chair is unable or unwilling to do so) a Member or Trustee elected by those Members present presides at a general meeting.
- 6.10 Except where otherwise provided by the Articles or the Companies Acts, every issue at a general meeting is decided by a majority of the votes cast.
- 6.11 Every Member present in person has one vote on each issue.
- 6.12 In the case of an equality of votes, the person chairing the meeting shall have a second or casting vote.
- 6.13 No Member shall be entitled to vote at any general meeting unless all monies presently payable by that Member to the Charity have been paid.
- 6.14 A declaration by the person chairing the meeting that a resolution has been:
- 6.14.1 carried; or
 - 6.14.2 carried unanimously, or by a particular majority; or
 - 6.14.3 not carried; or
 - 6.14.4 not carried by a particular majority; and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the general meeting, shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of votes in favour of or against the resolution.

- 6.15 Subject to the Companies Acts, the proceedings at any general meeting or the passing of a written resolution shall not be invalidated by reason of any accidental informality or irregularity (including with regard to the giving of notice) or any want of qualification in any of the persons present or voting.
- 6.16 If any person wishes to object to the qualification of any vote, they must do so at the meeting at which the vote they object to is tendered. A vote which is not disallowed at the meeting will be deemed valid. The person chairing the meeting will be the sole judge of the validity of every vote tendered at the meeting.

Proxies

- 6.17 The notice of appointment of a proxy (in such form as the Trustees may specify from time to time) must be received at the registered office of the Charity (or such other address specified by the Charity for that purpose) not less than 24 hours before the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the proxy notice proposes to vote. If it arrives late, or does not arrive at all, the proxy will not be allowed to attend and vote at the meeting.

Poll voting

- 6.18 A poll may be demanded by the person chairing the meeting or by at least 10% of the members present in person at the meeting.
- 6.19 A poll demanded on the election of a person to chair the meeting or on a question of adjournment must be taken immediately. A poll on any other matter shall be taken, and the result of the poll shall be announced, in such manner as the person chairing the meeting shall decide, provided that the poll must be taken, and the result of the poll announced, within 30 days of the demand for a poll.
- 6.20 A poll may be taken:
- 6.20.1 at the meeting at which it was demanded; or
 - 6.20.2 at some other time and place specified by the person chairing the meeting; or
 - 6.20.3 through the use of postal or electronic communications.

Written resolutions

6.21 A written resolution signed by a majority of those entitled to vote at a general meeting (or, where the Companies Acts require, a greater majority) is as valid as a resolution actually passed at a general meeting. For this purpose the written resolution may be set out in more than one document and will be treated as passed on the date of the last signature required to reach the relevant majority.

Annual general meetings

6.22 The Charity must hold an AGM in every year. Not more than 15 months may elapse between successive AGMs.

6.23 At an AGM, the Members:

7.2 The Charity must maintain a register of Trustees (which may be called a register of directors).

Number of Trustees

7.3 There shall be between six and sixteen Trustees. In accordance with article 5.2, the Trustees shall become Members by virtue of their appointment as Trustees if they are not already a Member. If the number of Trustees shall fall below six, the remaining Trustees may act only to appoint further Trustees as required, circulate a written resolution to the Members and/or call a general meeting.

Appointment of Trustees

7.4 Up to ten Trustees may be appointed by the Trustees.

- 7.5 Up to six Trustees will be elected by Member ballot. The method of election will be decided by the Members at a general meeting from time to time.
- 7.6 The appointment of a Trustee must not cause the number of Trustees to exceed sixteen.

Terms of office and retirement by rotation

- 7.7 Trustees shall be appointed for an initial term of three years.
- 7.8 A Trustee who has served their term must retire at the Trustees' meeting (if appointed by the Trustees) or general meeting (if appointed by the Members) nearest to the date on which their term of office expires (notwithstanding that the relevant Trustees' meeting or general meeting may precede the date on which their term of office expires).
- 7.9 Subject to article 7.10, a retiring Trustee who remains qualified may be reappointed for one further consecutive term of office. For the avoidance of doubt, a 'term' shall be three years.
- 7.10 The Trustees may, in circumstances which they consider to be exceptional, permit one or more of the Trustees to serve one or more additional consecutive terms of office, provided that any such further reappointment may only take effect with the consent of the Members (plus proxies) present at the AGM.

Retirement and removal of Trustees

- 7.11 A Trustee's term of office automatically terminates if they:
- 7.11.1 retire in accordance with article 7.7 and 7.8;
 - 7.11.2 resign by written notice to the Trustees (but only if at least six Trustees will remain in office);
 - 7.11.3 die;
 - 7.11.4 are disqualified under the Charities Act from acting as a Charity Trustee or are prohibited by law from being a director of a company, or are disqualified from being a charity trustee under the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 or Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008;
 - 7.11.5 are, in the reasonable opinion of the other Trustees, at any time incapable, whether mentally or physically, of managing their own affairs;

- 7.11.6 are absent from more than half of the meetings of the Trustees in any 12 month period and are asked by a majority of the other Trustees to resign;
- 7.11.7 cease to be a Member (but such a person may be reinstated by resolution passed by all the other Trustees on resuming Membership of the Charity before the next AGM); or
- 7.11.8 are removed by an ordinary resolution approved by at least 50% of the Members present and voting (including proxies) at any General meeting (but only if at least six Trustees will remain in office) after the meeting has invited the views of the Trustee concerned and considered the matter in the light of any such views. If the Members pass a resolution in accordance with this article, the Trustee concerned shall be removed as a Trustee from the date of the resolution.

8. TRUSTEES' PROCEEDINGS

- 8.1 The Trustees must hold at least two meetings each year

Calling Trustees' meetings

- 8.2 A Trustee may at any time, and the Secretary (if any) must at the request of a Trustee, summon a meeting of the Trustees.

- 8.8 The Chair or (if the Chair is unable or unwilling to do so) some other Trustee chosen by the Trustees present presides at each meeting.
- 8.9 Any issue may be determined by a simple majority of the votes cast at a meeting, but a resolution in writing agreed by all the Trustees, or all the members of a committee (as appropriate), other than any Conflicted Trustee, or conflicted committee member, who has not been authorised to vote, is as valid as a resolution passed at a Trustees' meeting, or a meeting of a committee (as appropriate). For this purpose the resolution may be contained in more than one document.
- 8.10 Every Trustee has one vote on each issue.
- 8.11 In the case of an equality of votes, the Chair shall have a second or casting vote.
- 8.12 Subject to the Articles, the Trustees may regulate their meetings as they see fit.

Procedural defects

- 8.13 A procedural defect of which the Trustees are unaware at the time does not invalidate decisions taken at a meeting.
- 8.14 Subject to article 8.15, all decisions of the Trustees shall be valid notwithstanding the participation in any decision of a Trustee:
- 8.14.1 whose appointment is subject to a technical defect of which the Trustees are unaware at the time the decision is made;
 - 8.14.2 who was disqualified from holding office;
 - 8.14.3 who had previously retired or who had been obliged by the Articles to vacate office;

- if without the vote of that Trustee and that Trustee being counted in the quorum, the decision was made by a majority of Trustees at a quorate meeting.
- 8.15 Article 8.14 does not permit a Trustee or Connected Person to keep any benefit that may be conferred on them by a resolution of the Trustees if, but for article 8.14, the resolution would have been void.
